Things Doing & Brewing

AT OUR CIVIC CENTER

Supervisors' regular meeting on Tuesday was a quiet affair, with all members of the board present except Supervisor Gibson.

Supervisor Dave Bird was chairman pro tem. It is rumored that Bird will be elected chairman of the board at the first 1956 meeting, three members having stated privately that they favored his appointment. The chairmanship rotates annually among the members. No authority beyond that regularly pertaining to a member of the board attaches to the chairmanship except prestige. Bird has served as chairman previously. His grasp of county affairs, gained through his years of service, enables him to keep matters before the board moving effectively.

At Tuesday's meeting a hearing of a request from the Fraternal Spiritual Church for cancellation of taxes because proper forms were not filed in accordance with the law was denied, because of non-appearance of petitioners. Chief Deputy Assessor Requa was on hand. Later the church folks appeared, said they had gotten into the city council by mistake as the reason for non-appearance, and on reconsideration by the superivsors, the cancellation was granted. Seems like a lot of grief caused by these tax matters relating to churches could be avoided if the various churches granted exemption by law would have somebody on the job to attend to the exemptions at the proper time and in the proper manner.

A sewer line installation proposal in Solana Beach neighborhood was argued at length, finally put over for three weeks for action. Somewhat similar to Spring Valley's recent agitation, with some property owners wanting to be left out of the proposed district.

Chief item of interest in assessor's office was announcement of the engagement to marry of Mrs. Margery Anderson to Arthur C. Eddy. This announcement was scheduled for December 23, but the news leaked out the first of the week and was all over the building in about 15 minutes.

Mrs. Anderson has been secretary to the assessor for several years, acting in that capacity for Crowell D. Eddy, and since his retirement having the same position with Arthur. When asked about the rumored engagement, Art smiled and said "It is a pretty good rumor."

A change in assesors is rumored to take place about the end of February, so we were told by a man in the know. Prominent politically in both city and county politics, this informant said the supervisors were getting steamed up and some action on charges recently presented to the board by Raoul Laughlin would be taken soon.

Looks like a new deputy district attorney will be appointed to care for matters in outside courts. Judge of Oceanside's court asked the sheriff to provide additional court room, as his court was too crowded. District Attorney Keller spoke to the board, thought that the appointment of an additional D. D. A. would serve in lieu of an additional court room. Tentative arrangements for use of council chambers have been discussed with Oceanside city officials. Keller thought that re-setting of trial dates for cases already set for the same day would be satisfactorily arranged, as the court usually sits only in the mornings, leaving afternoons free.

Tax Collector Wilbur Easton reports tax receipts of approximately $30,000,000 for the first half of this year's tax, with money still coming in, which is somewhat in excess of last year's receipts, but with $4 million more bills, as more cities have arranged to have their tax collections made by the county. At this time all incorporated cities in the county except Coronado have their taxes collected by the county tax collector, and Coronado is casting sheep's eyes at the arrangement, the city manager of that thriving little suburb having made inquiries recently as to the procedure. A new city manager for Coronado is in the offing, and a decision by Coronado's officials will await his appointment.

A beautiful Christmas tree, decorated and lighted, with potted poinsettias banked underneath, lends an effect to the lobby at the main entrance. The east side of the building, facing Pacific Highway, has a huge shield near the top. Two trucks, one with a 40 foot boom, and several men, were needed to get this shield in place. It is an imposing sight when lighted.

Check Artist Writes One Too Many in Lemon Grove

Check artists will give Lemon Grove a wide berth in the future, if the Lane organization gives any criteria of how they are going to be treated.

Alertness and bravado on the part of members of Lane's Shop, 7765 Broadway, resulted in the apprehension of Glenn Wright, 27, unemployed Chula Vista man Friday.

Wright, now in county jail on a charge of passing six checks in Lemon Grove, two in La Mesa and one in San Diego, had purchased a pair of pants Wednesday at the Lane store. Check was for $35. Purchase was $20. Wright took his change but was to return Friday for his altered garment. The bank reported "no such account" and the telephone number listed by the purchaser proved to be a foney. Lane still had the pants so he figured he was out $15.

During the busiest part of the holiday sales season, Friday evening, in walked Mr. Wright and requested his britches. Lane motioned to two employees, Richard Speaks Jr., and R. L. Scott, to slip out and get the police. Meanwhile, both Lane and his wife Mildred attempted to hold the attention of the "customer" until the police could get there. Mrs. Lane pretended to call a "reference" number given her by the man.

Finally, the young man became nervous and upon direct charge by Lane, admitted he did not have a bank account. He offered to return the $15 in exchange for the check and peeling that amount off a large roll tossed it on the counter and grabbed the check and fled as the two employees who had gone after the cops returned. They followed the man, who broke into a run, into the Mayfair parking lot, and captured him.

On their return to the store Lane realized that he had no evidence, the "shopper" now having the check, so he ordered the man released. Scott and Speaks had by now a taste of the chase and were not about to let the check writer off so easily. They followed him to his car and each stood in the way. The driver was not willing to add a hit-and-run charge to his present troubles, so he waited. He waited just long enough for the La Mesa police to arrive after which he was booked on nine check charges.

Charitably, the names of the other five Lemon Grove shops were not released. Trial date will be set this week.

Two Rose Bowl Tickets to Go as Club Prizes

Some local football fans will see the Rose Bowl game because of a Kiwanis event being staged this week.

A raffle, with two Rose Bowl tickets as prizes, is being held this week. Other local service clubs are taking part in the affair.

The tickets were donated by Cecil Hollingsworth, member of UCLA coaching staff for the past 25 years. He is here presently to construct the Singing Hills Golf Course in El Cajon.

Income from the raffle will be used for Kiwanis youth projects, according to Dan Apra, retiring president of the club.

FOURTH LEG OF FREEWAY UNDER BID

Bids for the connecting link of the Lemon Grove freeway, 2½ miles from the Wabash freeway east to Euclid will be opened January 26, according to Ralph Luckenbach, assistant engineer with the state highway department.

This section, the fourth to be started, will get under way as soon as the contract is let.

The entire project from downtown San Diego to El Cajon, will be completed by autumn, 1957.

Air Station Employee Wins 'Money Doll'

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Woods of 8225 Salona Drive was the winner of Christmas Carole, the money doll, given by the Business Women's League of Lemon Grove.

Wood, who is an employee of the Naval Air Station, picked up his winnings Saturday after a drawing had been made in the plaza. He was accompanied by Navy Chaplain Burr.

According to a family member, it was the first time the couple had won a prize of any sort. The money had not been spent by this week, but it had been counted. There was about $110 on Carole.

The profit, the exact amount of which is to be announced later, was substantial, it was intimated by league president Jeanne Nicholls. The money will be used to beautify the plaza.

It's Time to Dig for Auto License Dough Again!

SACRAMENTO—License renewal statements were mailed last week to 5,300 California automobile owners.

The statements, in the form of pre-punched cards, contain the owner's name, make and type of car, and the amount of the 1956 registration and license plate fees. The 1956 renewal period will be from January 3 through February 4, both for applicants who send in their fees by mail and those who renew in person at the more than 200 permanent and temporary offices of the State Department of Motor Vehicles.

The pre-punched fee statements for private autos were used in California for the first time in the 1955 renewal, replacing the "white slips" of former years. As in the 1955 renewal period, vehicle owners again are being cautioned by motor vehicles director Paul Mason to:

1—Fill in the stub, or right-hand portion of the card to correspond with the name and address printed on the left-hand portion, typed or printed. When an error has been made in the printing, correct the error and fill in the stub correctly.

2—Do not detach the stub, either when mailing fees to the department or when presenting the card and fees in person to a motor vehicles office. In every case, the entire card must be submitted.

Similar statements of fees due on commercial vehicles and trailers, numbering more than 1,250,000, were mailed from Sacramento December 1.

"A surprising number of commercial and trailer owners are doing the very thing we keep asking them not to do," Director Mason reported. "Many are detaching and mailing in only the larger, left-hand portion of the cards."

"This means a delay of up to two weeks in processing the cards

Admiral Gehres Will Be Speaker at Local Retired Officers' Club

Rear Admiral Leslie E. Gehres, USN, ret., prominent in San Diego civic affairs, youth and veteran activities following a long and distinguished career in service, will address members and guests of the Foothills Retired Officers' Club at its monthly dinner meeting to be held in Michael's restaurant, Lemon Grove, on Tuesday, Jan. 3 at 7 p.m. His subject, "The Ramparts We Guard," stresses the need for preparedness against dangers threatening our American way of life.

Gehres rose from the enlisted ranks in World War I to rank of rear admiral at retirement in 1949. Highlight of his career came as skipper of the aircraft carrier "Big Ben" (USS Franklin) in 1945 when nearly sunk by Japanese dive bombers. Gehres declined his admiral's advice by refusing to abandon ship with 200-odd men trapped below decks. With remnants of his crew he succeeded in saving the lives of the trapped men, as well as the ship. For this heroic action he was awarded the Navy Cross.

Cdr. John R. McCants, USN, ret., president of Foothills Retired Officers' Club, stated the meeting is open to all military officers, active or retired and their wives, (ladies' night). Due to limited accommodations, advance reservations should be made by telephone to the club secretary at HO 6-3355, Lt. H. D. Casteel, USN, ret.

MILLIONS TO SEE FAMED ROSE PARADE ON JANUARY 2

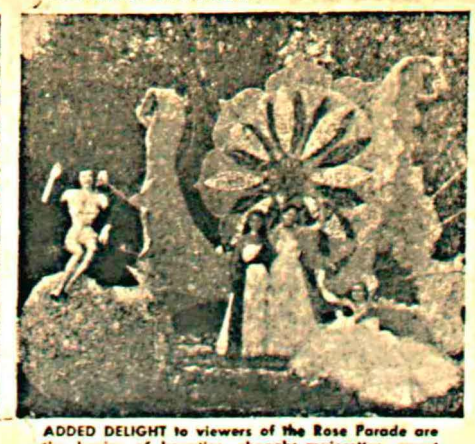

THIS TYPICAL ENTRY in an early Pasadena, Calif. Rose Parade is a far cry from lavish floats of today. Some 60 million persons will see the famed pageant on Jan. 2, when NBC telecasts it nationally.

PRESENT-DAY FLOATS are products of skilled artists, designers and craftsmen. The metal frame is covered with chicken wire, sprayed with plastic "cocooning," then covered with flowers.

ONLY FRESH FLOWERS and greenery may be used on floats. A single float may cost $20,000 and use 300,000 flowers — all hand-attached by corps of workers during the day and night preceding the Parade.

ADDED DELIGHT to viewers of the Rose Parade are the bevies of beauties, shapely majorettes, smart bands and equestrian units. Parade starts at 9:15 a.m., Pacific Standard Time, and lasts two hours.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

I am determined to carry on my announced policy of sweetness and light for the holidays right up to the end of the year and in such a roseate aura will I unfold the benign story of Penelope, the little turtle which for several years was the pet, the pride, and the joy of a Lemon Grove Barber.

Eli Jenkins is the barber and he runs a shop at 3364 Main Street and Penelope became the pet of Eli and his wife back in 1950 or thereabouts when they all lived in a small house with a postage stamp sized patio in North Park.

Penelope was a lady turtle, and as such, was entitled to and received more affectionate treatment than you would naturally give to a male turtle . . . and according to the report given to me by Eli, a report I found no reason to disbelieve, Penelope returned the affection.

"I would hold her in my lap and scratch her neck beneath her ear and she would make a quietly pleasant hissing sound," Eli said. "She would close her eyes and relax when we did this because she loved and trusted us."

Penelope was intelligent, too. She soon learned to respond to the sound of a spoon tinkled against a pan . . . a pan in which she was served food every few days. She would come loping from behind one of the bushes that surrounded the patio and wait hungrily to be fed. The patio was not more than 10 feet square so the traveling time was not too great, according to Eli.

"I guess there wasn't anything we didn't know about Penelope nor anything she didn't know about us," he confided. "It was a mutual admiration because she didn't impose herself, nor did we make too great a demand upon her."

As the days grew short each year, Penelope would become drowsy and with little fanfare she would hie off to some spot in the patio and begin her annual hibernation.

"Winter months were always a little lonelier without Penelope to cuddle but her leaving was traditional and the routine was not disturbed by us . . . at least, not intentionally.

"It was the sixth year with us and about midway in Penelope's period of hibernation. Winter was drawing to a close and my wife ordered me to turn the earth in one corner of the patio for a flower planting project she had in mind.

"Shortly I hit a hard object and recognized it immediately as the hard shell of Penelope. She had burrowed a tunnel to where flowers were to have been planted. As I lifted her gently she gazed at me moodily. I had broken her routine.

"Penelope did not go back to sleep. She seemed to lose interest in many of the things that appeared to please her before the gardening incident. She wouldn't respond to the chow-call. She seldom ate. She acted dopey, just like you would if you were awakened three months early.

"More than that, she became crotchety. She appeared surly, cold and appeared to brood. She wasn't fun for us anymore, nor we for her. We wanted to believe that she was sleepy rather than that she carried rancor in her heart.

"It was early summer when it happened. Someone left the patio gate slightly adjar. Penelope had had it. She left our bed and board. We have never seen her since, nor had any of our neighbors.

"Later, we moved to Lemon Grove, but we occasionally drive by the North Park house in hopes that we'll see Penelope scratching at the gate, her muffled feelings finally soothed," Eli concluded.

There you have it . . . a touching little saga with a moral wrapped in it somewhere but for the life of me I can't crystalize it into words. It lies somewhere between "Don't wake up a sleeping female," and the truism that the merest accident can strain the relations of good friends if one of them is uncompromising.

Jenkins is a union barber and a good one. I got a top quality haircut and this touching story for $1.50, the regularly established price for such commodities.

First Showing of Congregational Church Improvement

This is a photograph of the architect's model of the proposed new sanctuary of the First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove, to be located on Olive Street at the corner of Church Street, Lemon Grove.

Plans as approved call for a seating capacity of 488 in the nave, plus room for an additional 75 on removable seats in the narthex, and a hundred more in a provisional balcony which will be added when growth of the church membership requires it. Present membership is about 450.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON-SERMON ON "GOD"

The Lesson-Sermon subject in all Christian Science churches Sunday is "God." Through the ages spiritually minded men have discerned great truths about God, and have given them to us in the Holy Bible. Many such passages are used in this sermon.

Moses heard God declare His Oneness and Allness in the First Commandment (Ex. 20:3), "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." The Psalmist sang (96:2, 6), "Sing unto the Lord, . . . Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in the sanctuary."

The Golden Text says of God's supremacy (I Sam. 2:2), "There is none holy as the Lord: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like our God."

WARNING ON DRINKING, DRIVING GIVEN AGAIN

"Drunk driving in the San Diego area during the New Year holiday will receive full enforcement emphasis," declared California Highway Patrol Captain H. W. Clodfelter today.

"Last year one out of every three injury accidents involved one or more drivers who had been drinking," Captain Clodfelter continued. "This holiday traffic problem must be curtailed if we are to make any progress in our traffic accident prevention program.

"The patrol is joining with the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control in an all out effort to stop the incidence of excessive drinking and driving," he said. "We are particularly concerned about the aftermath of Christmas and New Year parties where excessive drinking occurs.

"Also marked for special consideration are known sources of drinking drivers. Warnings have been given and necessary enforcement action will be taken in an effort to make this a safer and more enjoyable holiday period."

NO DRAFTEES FOR FEBRUARY

The Navy will not take draftees during the month of February, 1956, Eleevnth Naval District headquarters announced today.

Originally, the department of defense had estimated that 8,000 draftees would be called during February, but it was announced last week that only 6,000 men would be drafted—all for the Army.

It was further stated that enlistments and reenlistments in the Navy during the past few months has made a Navy draft call for the second month of the new year unnecessary..

STATE SETS EXAM FOR LABOR CODE ENFORCEMENT AGENTS

An examination for positions as agents with the State Division of Industrial Welfare is now open to application, the state personnel board has announced.

Working hours, working conditions and the pay of women, children, and handicapped persons are investigated by industrial welfare agents. They also hold hearings, obtain evidence for criminal prosecution, help prepare cases, and appear as witnesses in court when such action is necessary to enforce the labor code.

The positions pay $436-$530 a month. They require two years of full time, paid experience in personnel or administrative work, labor relations or industrial welfare service in government, as well as a working knowledge of state and federal labor laws and Industrial Welfare Commission orders.

College education, preferably with a major in economics, sociology or industrial relations, is also a requirement, but additional qualifying experience may be substituted on a year-for-year basis.

Application forms may be obtained from department of employment offices on Columbia Street.

Alien Address Report Program Requires Registration of All Aliens in January

In 1940 there were four million aliens in the United States. That year was the first that aliens were required to register, and a yearly registration has been required since then.

More than 2,300,000 aliens filled out cards last January under the program, and the figure is expected to reach more than two and a half million in 1956.

George W. Scallorn, officer in charge of the San Diego office, gave this reporter some interesting facts and figures this week on the registration program. This office is in charge of San Diego and Imperial counties, with some 26,000, mostly Mexicans registered in San Diego county, with 6,000 to 8,000 in Imperial county.

Mr. Scallorn explained that of the 4,000,000 registered in 1940, many had become citizens, hence the number of registrants dropped as the citizens increased in number.

California has 113,000 Mexican aliens. Only eight states in the U. S. have an alien population, with New York leading, California second. Great Britain and Canada furnish 70,000, Italy 16,000, Germany 15,000 and Poland 6,000.

Immigrants are informed by the 20 inspectors at the Tijuana line of the requirements of the Registration Act. The inspectors all speak Spanish, and use that language in their explanation, so that entire understanding exists.

Registration requirements are simple. Name and address, age and date of first entrance. This card may be secured at any post office or the nearest immigration office and must be filled out and returned to the clerk in the office where the card is secured. This is required, as stated by Wm. E. Addis, inspector in charge, so that the areas may not be confused in their reports. In no case are the cards to be mailed in.

Parents may fill out cards for their children under age 14. Legal guardians of aliens in custodial care should fill out the address reports for such persons.

Inspector Addis said any alien who is ill may send a friend or relative to obtain this address report card for him, and return the card after it is filled out.

After filling out the card at a post office or immigration office the alien then gives the card to a clerk, and he has fulfilled his obligation under the act.

CHRISTMAS HAS COME AND GONE

Remember the story of the old colored man who had saved his tips and the day before Christmas had enough money to buy a bottle of gin? He stuck the bottle in his pocket, it fell out and smashed on the sidewalk. The old man shook his head sorrowfully, looked at the broken bottle with gin oozing away and said "Christmas am come and gone."

That's the way we feel. Here it is two days before Christmas, and we are working on next week's paper, which will be as near to New Year's as it now is to Christmas, and the boss' orders that as far as we are concerned, Christmas is over.

Inquiry among various merchants revealed that the response to REVIEW advertising had been very satisfactory. "A good Christmas business, mostly cash" was the way Mr. Morrison of Morrison-Adams expressed it. "We didn't sell as many watches and diamonds as we had hoped, but more than made up for it in the sale of less costly articles. Mr. Morrison was in business in Missouri some years ago, said he had advertised extensively in the town's newspaper. Other merchants in the same business did not advertise at all, and in a short time one went out of business and the other had a bankrupt sale.

Taken all together, the general opinion seemed to be that Christmas business in Lemon Grove was quite satisfactory.

I hope the boss doesn't kill this story.—D. H.

I'm Diggin' My Folks? . . . I think it's the least the way people aren't hep to the English language these days. Ever since I blew out of high school and into college, I can't seem to make any of my old square pals dig my sounds. Like first instance last week when I was buggin out for the eve I was bombing downstairs on my way to the local flick with a chick, and the folks hung me up in the hall.

"I'm cutting out," I told them. "Gonna hit the pit, then stop for a couple of looseners."

"You're what and then what and then what?" dad asked.

"Have to book the screens, daddio. Catch a few swinging shadows, then we're gonna fall by a little session and pick up some sounds." Dad looked bewildered. "Popperoony, you're flipping. Don't gas out. I'll be cool."

"Maybe you'd better bring your overcoat," mom said nervously.

"No, mom, not cool. I mean cool. You know, mellow. Roonie. Voute. Don't worry, I won't come back smashed."

"You get so much as a dent in that car!" dad threatened.

"You don't dig, daddio," I laughed. "I mean that I won't get blasted. Plowed. Stoned."

Mom was stirring her coffee with her fork. Dad lit the wrong end of a filter-tip cigarette.

"For Pete's sake, tell us what you're trying to say," he choked, "and don't call me daddio!"

"O.K., father bear, O. K. I gotta move now. Have to blow this old cellar. I'll clue you tomorrow."

"Are you dating Barbara tonight, dear?" mom asked. "She's going to look simply stunning when she gets those braces off her teeth."

"Come on, mom," I said, "you're goofing the goof. She's a three-dimensional miracle you can see without glasses. I mean, she's nowhere."

Dad was chewing up the end of his cigarette; his eyes were glazed. "It's time I paid the check," I told them. "Catch your act in the morn, folks. Got to juice the wheels and hit the submarine races. I mean dig the whale fights. I mean check the blimps on the boondoks! Gas!"

Dad jumped to his feet and picked mom up in his arms. "Come on, flapper," he yelled, "let's drop over to the speak and sip a few orange blossoms. We'll do the black bottom and then some necking. We'll bring my uke. Hot diggety!"

Sometimes I just don't dig my folks at all!

LOCAL GIRL MARRIES IN ENCANTO CHRISTMAS EVE

By ELIZABETH SEYMOUR

A Christmas Eve wedding with a color motif of red and green, was the setting for the nuptials of Miss Sharon Iris Archibald and Lambert H. Koopmans at 8 o'clock in the Encanto Methodist-Episcopal Church. The Rev. Everett Felder and the Rev. Everett Maynard officiated. Poinsettias, holly berries and pine branches were used in the church decorations. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Archibald of 6219 Broadway, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Koopmans, 8284 Golden Avenue, Lemon Grove.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and tulle, the close fitted bodice of white nylon lace and the scoop neck filled with tulle fold and a yoke ending in narrow mandarin collar of lace. The full skirt was designed with a lace panel front and back and was of floor length without train. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. Her flowers were white gardenias, white roses and carnations.

Miss Valerie Archibald, the bride's sister, served as maid of honor. She was gowned in green taffeta princess style with floor length bouffant skirt. She wore a white fur bandeau and carried a white fur muff.

The bridesmaids were Misses Susan Scharnikow, Peggy Ericksson, Barbara Koopmans and Judy Koopmans, sisters of the bridegroom, Martha Kilgore, Agnes Hared, Patricia Nicholls and Margarete Vierneisel. The maids were gowned in red and green taffeta, floor length the same style as the maid of honor and wore white fur bandeaux and carried muffs.

Dorothea Standish, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. She wore a Kate Greenway styled gown of red taffeta and fur hat and carried a muff.

The bride's mother chose a copper irridescent taffeta afternoon gown with copper-toned accessories and hat of pheasant feathers and white gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Koopmans Sr. chose a gold afternoon sheath dress with brown accessories.

Mannie Clinnick, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were John Van Der Linde, William Van Dusen, Richard Van Dusen, Warren Smith, Tony Hines, Jack Strickman, William Ellis and Scott Archibald, the bride's brother.

The wedding reception for 400 was held in the church social hall. In charge of the bride's book was Miss Barbara Anderson, and the wedding cake and punch were handled by Mrs. Katherine Price, Mrs. Luzenia Body and Mrs. Marian Gresorio.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Koopmans chose a beige ensemble with crimson accessories. The wedding trip will be to the north, with a stopover at Carmel-by-the Sea, and then on to Berkeley where the young couple will reside while Mr. Koopmans finishes his studies for PHD in the statistical field at the University of California. He is a graduate of Grossmont High School and San Diego State College.

Mrs. Koopmans Jr. is a member of the American Guild of Organists, San Diego Chapter, and for a time was organist in the Lemon Grove Congregational Church, where she first met Mr. Koopmans. She is now organist for the church from which she was married. She is a graduate of San Diego High School.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Myra G. Archibald, maternal grandmother of the bride from Soquel, California.

and Mrs. J. G. Cooper, residents of the valley for the last three years. A. H. Martinez, Borrego Springs building contractor and designer, is erecting the structure for the Coopers.

The building, which will be entirely air conditioned, will have 2,800 square feet, with a frontage of 48 feet on Palm Canyon Road. The lot is 125 feet deep.

Mr. Cooper said part of the building will house a new building and loan office, and the building will be ready for occupancy about March 1.

The building is of masonry construction and will have a flagstone veneer front.

NEW RESTAURANT PLANNED AT BORREGO

BORREGO SPRINGS — Construction of a $50,000 restaurant and cocktail lounge on Palm Canyon Road, just off Christmas Circle, has been started here.

rapidity when sewer lines are constructed in the sanitation district there. Approval of a $735,000 bond issue last fall is expected to open the way to a building boom there in the next two years.

The demand for water will follow the increase in population. Engineering projections indicate a future population of 50,000 in the Spring Valley area.

Election authorizing issuance of $5,230,000 irrigation district bonds is scheduled for some time in March. This bond issue will finance the construction of major transmission lines and expanded storage facilities to take care of the district's needs until 1970, Shelton said. Incidentally, these bonds will be paid for from funds received from sale of water and will not be an addition to the tax rate.

If Lemon Grove and Spring Valley would pool their interests and incorporate, both areas would profit. Spring Valley offers unlimited opportunities for expansion to the east. If Lemon Grove-Spring Valley would get together and incorporate and stop the nibbling away of Lemon Grove by annexation to San Diego and La Mesa, we would have a real city.

Every itme we drive over the hill to Casa de Oro we are thrilled by the vista of rolling hills and beautiful building sites. And there is nothing this side of the eastern county line to stop our growth.

Vacant land for schools is very scarce in Lemon Grove, and San Diego and La Mesa are scouting around the edges to get another bite of our pie.

Let's get together with our neighbor to the east and stop this nibbling before Lemon Grove is gobbled up and swallowed down.

Remember how easily San Diego grabbed the $10 million shopping center?

Now that the death rate is lower, let's do something about the tax rate.

Women like to believe that love can achieve anything. It is her peculiar superstition.

Unwed Mothers Need Help—Not Censure

Door of Hope Gives Vital Aid Generously

By BOB TURNBULL

Several people take it upon themselves to give an annual Christmas present of a monetary donation to one of San Diego's outstanding private welfares, Door of Hope, a refuge for unmarried mothers and mothers-to-be. Yet a donation to this worthy organization should not be only an annual project for some clubs or individuals, as this group needs financial funds year 'round.

American currency is needed most urgently. The Door of Hope is a Salvation Army hospital. Girls of all ages, creeds and from all types of environment are located there just waiting for their babies to be born.

Every year brings an increase in the number of girls who enter this establishment. Naturally this means expense of only its general upkeep continues a mounting surge, not counting the special or miscellaneous upkeep that undoubtedly threads its way into the budget. Every year the Door of Hope winds up in the hole, in fact, way, way in the hole. This serious deficit faces them annually. Even the workers perform their duties for "chicken feed." They get paid salaries of little as only $35 to $55 per month. And believe me, they really toil.

The job these people are accomplishing are socially and spiritually wonderful as they endeavor to help ease the psychic trauma that comes from childbirth out of wedlock.

The unfortunates in the Door of Hope waiting that blessed event only God could create don't need scorn or shame heaped upon them by the public; instead they need your dollars, but above all, your sincere prayers.

If you would like to contribute to their cause in order that a human baby may grow up an American gentleman or lady, then please send your money to the Salvation Army Door of Hope, 2301 Bolinas St., San Diego 7. Thank you! Happy New Year!

and returning the stubs to the owners. It is especially difficult in the case of owners who remit by personal check. Collection procedure requires the department to wait 21 days before forwarding registration certificates of persons who pay by personal check. The reason for this is to give the department time to deposit the checks and clear them through the banks."

Mason reminded motorists that the stub is detached from the cards and returned to serve as the 1956 vehicle registration card after the fees are paid.

Temporary renewal stations in 100 banks in metropolitan areas will be authorized to issue plates for private passenger cars only this year, he added. "Renewals may be applied for at bank stations only with the pre-punched statements mailed from Sacramento for autos. In recent years trucks and trailers have also been registered at banks. This year there will not be space for storing the plates for more than private cars at such stations."

Auto club and association members may register through their organizations during the same period.

STATE HOSPITALS NEED INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT MEN

Men capable of running the various industrial operations of a big state hospital are wanted for forthcoming appointments, according to the state personnel board.

The job is known as hospital industries supervisor and pays $481 to $584 a month. Applicants must show they have production or business management experience qualifying them for the place.

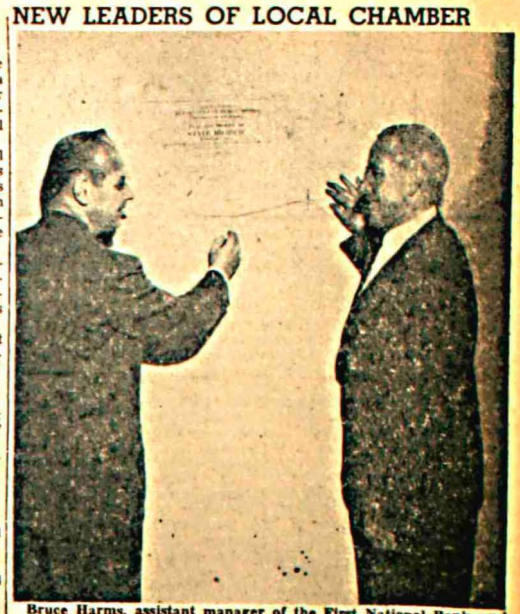

A hospital industries supervisor has charge of laundry, housekeeping, canning, garment making, shoe repair and various other services in the institution.

Applications are available at department of employment offices on Columbia Street.

NEW LEADERS OF LOCAL CHAMBER

Bruce Harms, assistant manager of the First National Bank, and William "Bill" Nienaber, operator of Bill's Self Serve gasoline station, look over a map of the Lemon Grove area to see what needs to be done by the local chamber of commerce during the coming year.

Look well they might, since the responsibility of the chamber is theirs during 1956. Harms was installed as president, Nienaber as vice president earlier this month. —L. G. Camera foto

MISS CHILDRESS SAYS VOWS AT ST. PHILLIP'S

By ELIZABETH SEYMOUR

The first wedding celebrated in the Episcopal Church of St. Philip the Apostle in Lemon Grove, Palm and Hardy Lane, united Miss Barbara Ann Childress and William Fred Manroe, USAF-A2C, on Sunday, December 18, with Rev. J. Phillip Bartlett officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edward G. Lehman, 8626 Valencia Street, Spring Valley, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manroe of San Diego.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Edward G. Lehman. Her petite person was set off by a lovely bridal ensemble of shimmering bridal satin with a cloud of embroidered nylon tulle. The close fitting bodice had a scoop neckline with tulle yoke and long close fitting sleeves ending in a sweetheart point. The bouffant skirt was enhanced by an eight inch puffed tulle insert midway and ended in a full chapel train. The hand rolled french illusion elbow length veil was held in place by a juliet cap sprinkled with pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with three American beauty rosebuds and long satin streamers.

Miss Dianne Curtis, maid of honor and classmate of the bride, wore a teal blue taffeta ballerina length dress with overlay of lace and satin sash with large bow. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Donald Manroe, a nephew of the bridegroom, served his uncle as best man. Kenneth Speck was usher, a cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Lehman, the bride's mother, had chosen a ballerina length powder blue nylon lace with blue nylon taffeta quilted front, rose beige and white accessories, and a pink carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue two-piece suit, with pink accessories and pink carnation corsage.

For her going away dress the bride wore a box suit of orchid gray and white tweed, orchid sweater and black accessories.

The reception was held at the bride's home for a hundred guests. In charge of the bride book was Miss Carol Ann Youngblood, Mrs. William Phillips assisted with the serving of the three tiered wedding cake.

The bride will graduate from Helix High School in January. The young benedict was graduated from San Diego High School and the Air Force school. After Mrs. Manroe graduates she will rejoin her husband at Clovis, New Mexico, where Mr. Manro is stationed.

STATE SEEKING SPECIAL TEACHERS FOR HANDICAPPED

Teachers specializing in instruction for various types of handicapped children are needed by the California state government, the state personnel board announced.

The jobs pay $395 or $415 to start, depending on qualifications. Additional academic training will bring raises up to a maximum salary of $556 monthly.

Teachers are needed for mentally retarded children, mentally defective deaf children, and for cerebral palsied children. Speech correction teachers also are needed.

Teachers in other lines also were invited by the personnel board to file applications now, and take qualifying examinations in January. Teaching classifications in this group are elementary, high school, home economics, Youth Authority, arts and crafts, music, and recreation and physical education.

Applications are available at state employment offices on Columbia Street.

THE OLD STORY

Cincinnati, Ohio — When their automobile ran out of gasoline, William Maltz, 55 and Ted Rivers, 35, got some gas and began pouring it into the tank. To be sure the gasoline was entering the tank properly, Maltz lighted a cigarette lighter. It was. In the ensuing explosion both Maltz and Red Rivers received third degree burns.

PACK 318 MEETING IS IN HOLIDAY SPIRIT

The December Pack meeting of Cub Pack 318 was held at Friendship Hall last week.

The Pack meeting was opened with the flag ceremony by Den 5, Mrs. Lyle Stumbaugh, den mother. A reading on the true meaning of Christmas was given by D. W. Emery.

New Bobcats welcomed into the pack were Bobby Landis in Den 7 and Gregory Gardner in Den 1. The awards, advancements and one years pins were presented by the Cubmaster, Robert Wilber. All of the Cubs in the pack, under the direction of the assistant Cubmaster, Harvey Pike, formed themselves into the shape of a Christmas tree. The lights were all turned out with the exception of colored flashlights held by the boys representing lights on the tree. The boys entertained their parents by singing Christmas carols. The parents were then presented with the gifts made by the boys in the den.

The meeting was closed by the entire group of boys and their families singing "Silent Night."

Refreshments were served by the mothers of Dens 2 and 3.
